Welcome to the City of Alliance Activity Report

Americans are all about going places and we all have a story about where we've been and how we got there! The "Journey Stories" exhibit and the wide variety of programs associated with the exhibit offers you a glimpse of the history of travel, immigration and transportation in America. The "Journey Stories" exhibit will be on display at the Knight Museum & Sandhills Center through March 8th!

The second of three evening discussion groups featuring Alliance residents and their stories about what brought them to our area will take place on Thursday, February 21st at 6:30 p.m. at the Knight Museum & Sandhills Center. Immigrants with German heritage will be the featured presenters and the audience is invited to participate in the discussion. As we continue to explore the different journeys we have all taken, the museum has a question for you, "What's Your Story?"

Today at 1:00 p.m. the library will show the movie "In Their Own Words: The Tuskegee Airmen" as part of their Friday Movie Matinees in the Young Adult area on the north side of the Alliance Public Library.
