

For airing on February 6, 2009

Welcome to the City of Alliance Activity Report.

- Plan to attend the Brown Bag program at the Alliance Public Library today at noon. Jody Mischnick will review “The Book Thief” by Markas Zusak which is the story of a young German girl during WWII. Refreshments will be served by the Friends of the Library.
- Children will be celebrating Valentines Day at Story Time at the Alliance Public Library on Tuesday, February 10th at 6:30 p.m. and Thursday, February 12th at 10:00 a.m.
- If you are interested in participating in a Community Garden, please contact Kevin Kubo at 762-5400 extension 224.
- Anyone interested in operating any type of home based business must obtain an In House Occupation Permit from the Community Development office located at 205 West 4th Street. The permits are free of charge and renewable each January 1st. For more information, please contact Marta Fritzler at 762-5400 extension 221.
- City of Alliance Utility customers will be receiving an example in their utility bills regarding the new water rates which went into effect on October 1, 2008. The City would like to encourage citizens to begin practicing water conservation measures as water rates are determined by the amount of water used. The average increase in water costs will be 46%. Rates for residential, rural residential, manufacturing, commercial and industrial park are listed on the city’s website at www.cityofalliance.net.

This concludes the Activity Report brought to you by the City of Alliance and KCOW. Please call the City at 762-5400 to share suggestions, comments or questions. Have a great weekend!
