

For airing on March 13, 2009

Welcome to the City of Alliance Activity Report.

- The Knight Museum and Sandhills Center is hosting the presentation of “New Harmonies, Music in Rural America,” in conjunction with the Museums on Main Street and Nebraska Humanities Council. To celebrate Music Inspiration Week, you are invited to enjoy “An Evening With the Classics.” Sydney Roosa accompanied by Linda Vollweiler will perform several numbers including an operatic aria. Entertainers will also include Sue Dimmitt and several of her musical students.
- Do you know what Mystery Monday is? Here is a clue.....Come to the Knight Museum and Sandhills Center every Monday for a special surprise activity that corresponds with the New Harmonies musical theme of the week. It may be crafts, entertainers, karaoke or dancing! The children’s fun begins at 3:30 p.m. followed by the adult programs at 6:30 p.m. Your hint for Monday, March 16th is Ethnic Music Week! Due to licensing issues, Mystery Mondays will replace Musical Movie Mondays.
- In conjunction with Ethnic Music Week, local Native American dancers will perform at the Knight Museum and Sandhills Center on Wednesday, March 18th at 6:00 p.m. On Thursday, March 19th at 7:00 p.m., Humanities Council speaker and storyteller, Jerome Kills Small, will be performing a variety of Lakota songs and dances followed by a discussion group. On Friday, March 20th from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. you are invited to learn about the history of Hispanic music and dance to the sounds of Los Ultimos del Norte Mexican Band.
- Tickets are now on sale for the annual Sallows Military Museum St. Patrick’s Day Corned Beef and Cabbage dinner which will be held on Tuesday, March 17th at the American Legion from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Tickets may be purchased from any Allies member or at the Knight Museum and Sandhills Center.
- All children ages 3 through 6 are invited to celebrate St. Patrick’s Day during Story Time at the Alliance Public Library on Tuesday, March 17th at 6:30 p.m. and Thursday, March 19th at 10:00 a.m.
- The Alliance Public Library in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce, is once again sponsoring “Read for a Ride” during the summer reading program. School age students can earn a wrist band for carnival rides during Heritage Days by achieving their reading goals. Any individual or business who has not been contacted and would like to help sponsor the program is encouraged to call the Library at 762-1387 for more information.

This concludes the Activity Report brought to you by the City of Alliance and KCOW. Please call the City at 762-5400 to share suggestions, comments or questions. Have a great weekend!
