

ALLIANCE POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESS RELEASE

TYPE OF INCIDENT: Community Partnership		CASE NUMBERS: None
LOCATION: 512 Niobrara	DATE: 03/04/21	TIME: 1500

DETAILS:

The Alliance Police Department and Box Butte County Sheriff’s office have partnered with the Alliance Dairy Queen. Both law enforcement agencies have a desire to serve the community and enjoy interacting with law abiding citizens. The Dairy Queen has graciously provided cards to both agencies awarding a free small blizzard to individuals when an officer or deputy contact them for a good deed.

Whether it’s children or adults, if an individual is observed contributing to our community in a notable fashion they may receive the following card.

Police Chief Lukens stated, “It’s a delight to work in tandem with Sheriff Mowry who shares the vision of rewarding the contributors to a great community. We are grateful for the generosity from Dairy Queen allowing for such a program.”
